

Stuart David Arkin
Board Member

Stuart D. Arkin has been a member of the Board of Directors of Deconstruction and Building Materials ReUse Network (“Deconstruction Network”) since May 2008.

Mr. Arkin is currently an independent entrepreneur and real estate broker with areas of specialization including but not limited to: business development focusing on Japan and select Asian markets; domestic commercial real estate brokerage; and identifying strategic partnerships/alliances between companies and brands worldwide.

Mr. Arkin’s prior experience includes serving as Vice President and Director of Leasing for Metropolitan Asset Group (“MAG”) reporting to Andrew L Farkas, Founder and Chairman of Insignia Financial Group. Subsequent to MAG, he joined Garrick-Aug Associates, the nation’s leader in retail store leasing at the time based in New York City.

Throughout his career, however, Mr. Arkin has made it a priority to participate in philanthropic causes. Highlights include: facilitating the recruitment of Wal-Mart International’s COO and Seiyu Japan’s CEO to the Board of the Giuliani Sage Japanese-American Leadership Foundation; implementing a micro-lending project to assist families and children in Quezon City, Philippines in association with the Dansville, NY Rotary Club, Rotary International and Haligi Ng Bata; creating and implementing a high school student exchange program between The Ross School of East Hampton, NY and Lycée Antonin Artaud of Marseille, France.

Mr. Arkin is a former membership chairman and board of governor of the YM/WREA, the Young Men’s/Women’s Real Estate Association of New York; a member of ABNY, The Association For a Better New York and a Licensed Real Estate Broker. Mr. Arkin has a thorough working knowledge of Japanese Language and Culture, Spanish and French. Mr. Arkin is an alumnus of Baruch College and New York University in New York City. Mr. Arkin now resides in sunny Long Beach, California.